

N4 Numeracy Part One – Practice Test (2)

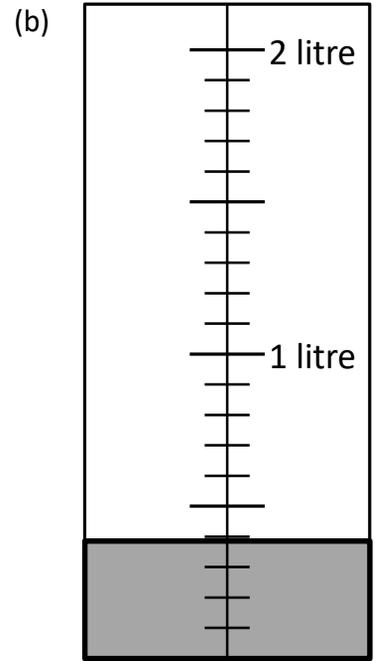

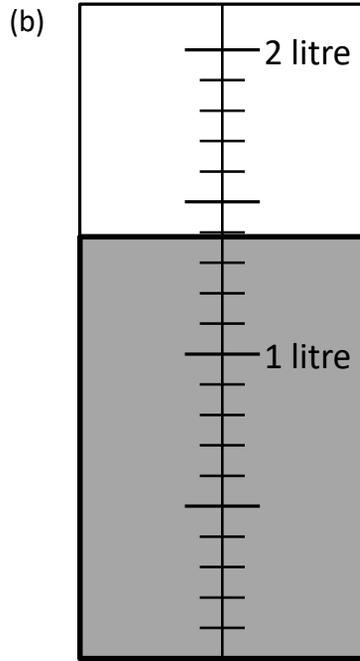

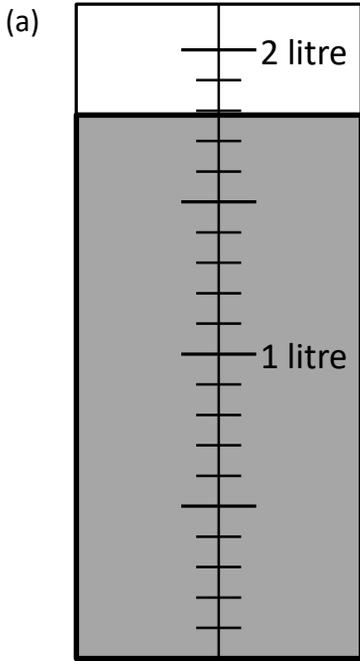

- (1) A new computer costs £450 plus VAT at 20%
- (a) Calculate the VAT
 - (b) What is the total price of the new computer ?
- (2) A box for sweets weighs 70g. It is designed to hold 300 sweets. When it is full it weighs 1570g.
How much does one sweet weigh ?
- (3) Trini is going to Italy. How many Euros will she get for £420 if the exchange rate is 1.42
- (4) The triangles below are right angled
- (i) Measure the length of the longest side
 - (ii) Measure the angle marked *

- (5) The maximum temperature recorded in the Australian desert was 47°C . The minimum temperature was -3°C .

What is the difference in the temperatures?

- (6) Some coloured water has been added to the measuring jars below. How much water is needed to fill up the jars.

- (7) Kerri is hiring a car for five days. She is trying to choose between two offers shown.

Blue Car

£60 deposit and
£32 per day

Bob's Cars

£40 deposit and
£39 per day

Which company has the cheaper deal ?